

The Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland's Freedom of Information Policy and Publication Scheme

The Society's general principle of disclosure

The Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland works on a general presumption of openness in terms of requests for information made to us from pharmacists, the public, stakeholders, academics, Government Departments and agencies, law enforcement agencies and journalists. Additionally, the Society's Publication Scheme (See Below) aims to make Society publications readily accessible to the public on our website on a continuous basis.

However certain kinds of information may need to be withheld where a legislative exemption applies or the public interest is not served by the release of information.

As required by the Freedom of Information Act, the Society has produced a publication scheme, outlining the kind of information it will voluntarily make available. The information included in its publication scheme is already available and requests for other information will be considered. More information is given below.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 provides, to any person upon written request, a general right of access to information held by a public authority. They have the right to be informed whether or not the authority is in possession of the information and, with certain exemptions, to have that information communicated to them. The Act obliges public authorities to provide and maintain a publication scheme which lays out the classes and subclasses of information that the authority will make available voluntarily. This scheme must give the terms under which the information will be provided, eg, whether or not there will be a charge for the information.

What this means: What the Society must do

The Society has produced a publication scheme based on a model scheme developed by the Health Regulators Information Policy Group, which was approved in February 2004 by the Information Commissioner. The group agreed on five broad classes and subclasses of information in which material would be published. All of the information listed in the scheme is currently available. The Society has also set up internal procedures to ensure that the scheme is maintained and updated.

Any individual who makes a written request for information will be informed if the Society holds the information that they seek, and if appropriate the information will be provided to them. If we do not hold the information we will advise, where possible, on an alternative source. The Society will comply with the time limit set down in the Act of 20 days for responding to an enquiry. It will consider on a case-by-case basis the option of providing the information in a language other than English, and providing it in formats suitable for people with disabilities.

Anyone wishing to make a request for information from the Society should do so by contacting the Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland in writing.

E-mails should be sent to:

info@psni.org.uk

Letters should be sent to:

The Pharmaceutical Society of Northern Ireland
73 University Street
Belfast BT7 1HL

The Society aims to disclose records wherever possible. Records that may be refused will be those containing information that is likely to be covered by the exemptions detailed in the Data Protection Act. These will include, but are not limited to:

- Records where disclosure would be in breach of other legislation, e.g., the Data Protection Act
- Records containing commercially sensitive information, or information subject to legal or any other professional privilege
- Records that are intended for later publication
- Records whose disclosure might prejudice law enforcement.

The Society will also consider the resource implications of any request. Where the provision of information would require more than 2.5 days work, and/or where the cost exceeds £450, the Society will not disclose. This is in keeping with the Secretary of State's Code of Practice.

If the Society has refused to release information, an enquirer has the right to appeal the decision. They must do so by writing to the Society within 28 days of receiving the decision. If an individual is not satisfied with the response, they can make a complaint to the Society, and finally complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

THE PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY OF NORTHERN IRELAND'S PUBLICATION SCHEME

PART 1 OF THE PUBLICATION SCHEME: INTRODUCTION

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”), we will adopt and maintain a ‘publication scheme’ (“the Scheme”) so that information can be made available to the public.

The Scheme has been approved by the Information Commissioner and follows the standard format used by health regulatory bodies in the United Kingdom. The Scheme will be regularly reviewed.

Purpose and Structure of the Publication Scheme

The purpose of the Scheme is to let you know what information is readily available from us.

By ‘readily available’ we mean information that is on our website, or that can be obtained from us by letter, fax or e-mail.

In creating and reviewing this Publication Scheme, we have to consider the public interest when:

- Allowing public access to the information we hold; and
- Publicising the reasons for decisions that we make.

By law, our Publication Scheme must:

- Set out the classes of information that we publish or intend to publish;
- Say how we will publish the information in each class; and

- Say if we will provide the information free or charge for it.

The Publication Scheme is in three parts:

- Part 1, “Introduction”, tells you about the Scheme
- Part 2, “Classes of Information”, sets out the classes or types of information that we publish or intend to publish. It also contains a list of classes of information that will generally not be made available
- Part 3 is the Publications List, which tells you what information is published, how it can be obtained and whether it is free of charge

The purpose of the Scheme is to make information available before you need to ask for it.

Charging Regimes

In the Publications List we indicate which of the following charging regimes could apply:

Free on Website (FOW)

There is no charge made by us for you downloading the information from the website, although the user will have to meet any charges made by the Internet Service Provider (“the ISP”) and/or telephone company as well as any personal costs for printing, etc.

Free of Charge Hard Copy (FOCHC)

Indicates that information will be provided in a hard copy format from the PSNI offices free of charge.

Chargeable Hard Copy (CHC)

Indicates information that is available from the PSNI offices on payment of a charge.

Copyright

Material made available through our publication scheme is subject to PSNI or third party copyright. Society information may be reproduced for personal or professional use only, in accordance with general Copyright Licensing Agency guidelines. Where information is reproduced, it must be reproduced accurately, not used in a misleading context and an appropriate acknowledgement must be inserted.

Permission to reproduce material does not extend to any material accessed through the Scheme that is in the copyright of third parties. You must obtain permission to reproduce such information from the copyright holder concerned. Information made available under this Scheme must NOT be reproduced, copied or otherwise used for any commercial purposes.

Reviewing and Updating the Publication Scheme

We will review our Scheme annually. New material will be added to the Publications List monthly and brought to the attention of users through the website.

Requests for Personal Information

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 (“the DPA”), you already have a statutory right to have access to personal data we hold about you on computer or in a structured manual file (i.e. on paper). You also have the right to expect the PSNI, as the Data Controller, to ensure that data is:

- Processed fairly and lawfully
- Obtained for specific and lawful purposes
- Adequate, relevant and not excessive for that purpose
- Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date

- Not kept for longer than is necessary
- Processed in accordance with your rights as the data subject
- Kept secure
- Not transferred abroad unless to countries with adequate data protection laws

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act:

- “Personal data” is information that relates to a living identifiable person
- “The Data Controller” is the person or organisation that controls the purpose and manner in which data is processed
- “The Data Subject” is the person to whom the data relates

Where we are the Data Controller, and subject to certain exemptions (see below), you are entitled to be told whether we hold personal data about you and, if so:

- To be given a description of the personal data in question
- To be told for what purposes the personal data is processed
- To be told the recipients, or classes of recipients, to whom the personal data is or may be disclosed
- To be given a copy of any personal data held with any unintelligible terms, acronyms or codes explained
- To be given any information available to us as to the source of the personal data

Exempted Information

As with the Freedom of Information Act, the Data Protection Act provides some exemptions to disclosure in relation to certain classes of information. If the exemptions apply to the information you have requested you will be informed in writing. However, the Society will not necessarily confirm or deny if such data is held about you.

Complaints

If you have a complaint about the operation of the Scheme, or about the way in which your request for personal data has been dealt with, please write to the PSNI Complaints Office seeking resolution of your complaint.

The address to write to is:

Complaints Officer
