4. Declaration

For registrants answering 'No' to question 1-6 in Section 3
I am applying for voluntary removal from the Register. I have answered 'No' to all the Fitness to Practise questions in Section 3 and declare I am not aware of any investigation by any enforcement or regulatory body, or proceedings brought by such a body, that relates to my fitness to practise, or of any act or omission on my part which might render me liable to an allegation being referred to the PSNI that my fitness to practise is impaired. The information I have provided for this application is complete, true and accurate.
For registrants answering 'Yes' to any question in 1-6 of Section 3
I am applying for voluntary removal from the Register. I have answered 'Yes' to one or more Fitness to Practise questions in Section 3 but I am not required to make a declaration to the Registrar as I have previously notified the PSNI of the matter(s). I also declare that I am not aware of any investigation by any enforcement or regulatory body, or proceedings brought by such a body, that relates to my fitness to practise, or of any act or omission on my part which might render me liable to an allegation being referred to the PSNI that my fitness to practise is impaired. The information I have provided for this application is complete, true and accurate. If it is relevant to my application, I request that the Registrar considers my application for voluntary removal from the register.
For registrants answering 'No' to any question in 1-6 of Section 3
I am applying for voluntary removal from the Register. I have answered 'Yes' to one or more questions in Section 3 and understand I am required to submit a completed 'Declaration to the Registrar' form within 7 days. I request the Registrar to consider my application for voluntary removal from the register in accordance with the policy of the PSNI as stated on the website www.psni.org.uk
