

Statutory Declarations

Statutory Declaration

Applicants should read the following notes to determine if they are required to make a statutory declaration.

Declaration A: This declaration should be completed if the applicant is not able to provide a birth certificate that meets the standard for registration purposes. Please ensure that the correct name is entered in both parts of declaration A.

Declaration B: This should be completed if the applicant is not using the full name (and in the same order) as shown on their birth certificate and they have not provided a change of name document such as a marriage certificate.

Declaration C: This should be completed by an applicant whose name is different on their documents to that on their application.

Please note applicants must complete these declarations (if relevant) in the presence of a solicitor who must also complete, sign, date and stamp the declaration at the end of the statutory declaration form. The applicant declaration must be fully completed when submitting a statutory declaration.
